This Amador Foothill Zinfandel has stunning black cherry and blackberry fruits, with notes of pepper and hints of minerality pouring out of the glass. An intricate Zinfandel with a balanced core. While keeping with traditional Amador Zinfandel characteristics, it is harvested to hold sugars and overripeness in check, with 22 months of barrel aging to merge acid and tannins to finesse the palate. A must have for Zinfandel lovers, and an unforgettable wine for everyone.
